ORDER

The Employer's Request for Review of the Regional Director's Decision on Objections and Certification of Representative is denied as it raises no substantial issues warranting review.¹

MARVIN E. KAPLAN, MEMBER

WILLIAM J. EMANUEL, MEMBER

JOHN F. RING, MEMBER

Dated, Washington, D.C., April 9, 2021.

¹ The Employer argues that the Regional Director, in considering its election objections after the hearing, should have weighed additional alleged incidents of union misconduct that the Regional Director excluded from her Order Directing Hearing. On September 24, 2020, the Board denied review of that Order. In denying review here, we observe the Employer is attempting to relitigate the Regional Director's exclusion of certain allegations from the hearing and emphasize "a party may not . . . file more than one request for review of a particular action or decision by the Regional Director. Repetitive requests will not be considered." Sec. 102.67(i) of the Board's Rules and Regulations.
